BETHANY LINZ

English Landscape Mural

The English Landscape mural was designed to capture the essence of the romantic 18th-century English landscape. Tranquil and pristine, the goal was to create a calm environment that inspired thoughts of renowned classic authors like Mary Shelley, Charlotte Bronte, and Jane Austen.

The charming landscape features a customarily dressed gentleman in the foreground, who has knelt to give his canine companion a loving pat. Beautifully painted large English trees frame the mural, accompanied by rolling hills leading into cozy cottages and the expanse of a glistening bay, where several ships travel to and from a busy port, ostensibly to trade their wares.

Originally a standalone painting, the design was carefully chosen by artist Bethany Linz to be transformed into an expansive repeating mural. Available in the green shade of the original painting, it is also available in a stunning indigo wash, and a classic black and white style.

Designed as panels that are 129.92 (330cm) high x 24 (61.5cm) wide.

This mural comes as a two roll set (ROLL A & B). Each roll comes with 3 panels. The horizontal pattern will repeat every 6 panels. Install all of ROLL A, followed by all of ROLL B.
