South Asian Subcontinent Mural

South Asian Subcontinent is a tropical mural that celebrates old 1700's landscape art. The original artists had a way of making the new lands look romantic and appealing to attract new pioneers from faraway lands. This landscape is indicative of the old etchings of the Georgian & Victorian era. Etching is traditionally the process of using strong acid to cut into the unprotected parts of a metal surface to create a design in the metal. This design usually consists of many fine lines that create the image.

This mural is a perfect example of these fine lines and romanticized landscapes, consisting of beautiful palms, botanicals and foraging exotic birds, rolling hills and wind-swept clouds.

Designed as panels that are 117.6" (300cm) high x 24" (61.5cm) wide.

One roll covers 72" (6 ft) of wall width.

Each roll comes with 3 panels. The horizontal pattern will repeat every 3 panels.

To calculate the amount you need, divide your total wall width in inches by 72.

$(144 \div 72 = 2 \text{ rolls})$

Made to order. Ships in 2-5 days.
