The Garden House Collection

The Garden House by Kingdom Home takes its cues from the cultivated beauty of an old English garden, interpreted through an East-meets-West lens. Drawing on the enduring romance between Eastern and Western decorative traditions, the collection brings together flowering branches, ornamental birds, peacocks, fruiting trees and trailing vines, shifting between open botanical studies and abundant garden scenes.

Seven distinctive designs create a versatile decorating language, from the delicate flowering branches of Chelsea Trellis to the abundant plumage of Peacock Pavilion and the painterly forms of Blossom Branch. The intricate artistry of chinoiserie intertwines with the romance of the English garden, with each pattern offering a different view, as though moving through the garden and seeing its flowers, foliage and birdlife from a new perspective.

Across parchment, olive and porcelain through to rich ink, rosewood and mahogany, The Garden House offers plenty of scope to create rooms that feel personal, expressive and connected from one space to the next.
